

EARLY FALL 2008

BOSTON COMMON®

INSIDER
BY INVITATION

A Lasting Legacy

Supporters came together to honor an exceptional woman and a special cause.

WHAT: The third annual House Party to benefit Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston, a private evening of cocktails, dinner, and dancing to celebrate the achievements of Linda Whitlock, the organization's Nicholas president and CEO, who stepped down on June 30 after 10 years.

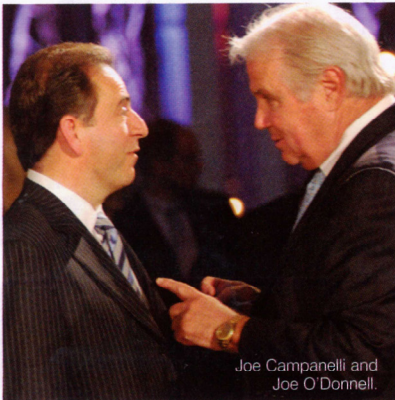

WHERE: The home of Ginny and Roy MacDowell

WHEN: Friday, May 16, 2008; 6:30 P.M. cocktails, 7:30 P.M. dinner and program

WHO: Cohosts Ginny and Roy MacDowell and Cyndy and John Fish; cochairs Darlene Jordan, Elena Mattlack, and Laura Reynolds; honorary chairs Michele Kessler and Myra Kraft; event committee members Colleen Bain, Carolyn Campanelli, Heather Campion, Anne Marie Connolly, Kathryn Conway, Fotene Demoulas, Beth Dickerson, Sandy Edgerley, Susan Florence, Parvine Fotouhi, Betty Gaudreau, Patty Griffith, Elizabeth Gross, Peggy Henry, Marilyn Keane, Deborah Lewis, Nannette Lewis, Cory Little, Stacey Lucchino, Kay Lyons, Ginny MacDowell, Leslie McCafferty, Anne Moran, Jennifer Mugar Flaherty, Marion Mussafer, Katie Nicholas, Judy M. Pagliuca, Elizabeth B. Perik, Lisa Potter, Jeryl Oristaglio, Bryan Rafanelli, Berni Rehnert, Patty Ribakoff, Lisa Rooney, Holly Safford, Meredith Shachoy, Tiffany Spadafora, Roselee Wayman, and Simone Winston.

Server with hors d'oeuvres from Max Ultimate Foods.

Joe Campanelli and Joe O'Donnell.

Dramatic lighting on the tent ceiling.

Ginny and Pete Nicholas.

Event cohosts Ginny MacDowell, John Fish, Roy MacDowell, and Cyndy Fish.

Members of Eye2Eye performing.

"It is deeply gratifying to be involved in a wonderful event, but the real joy is to know that we are truly making a difference in the lives of at-risk youth."

—LAURA REYNOLDS, COCHAIR

Carolyn Campanelli and Elena Mattlack.

photographs by Randy H. Goodman

