EVENT PLANNING Rafanelli Events

FOR YEARS, Bryan Rafanelli's had a lock on this award because of his creativity—and the fact that he's so invested in what he does, it's as if his own daughter were getting married every time he plans an event. And with his extensive experience, he's got the tiniest of details down pat. Adept at organizing everything from an intimate anniversary party for Patriots owners Bob and Myra Kraft to seated charity dinners for several hundred of the sniffy Palm Beach/Nantucket set, his full-service company will handle everything from the venue to place cards. That includes creating and designing a concept, producing and mailing invitations, handling transportation, catering, flowers, lighting, and even figuring out what to do with annoying in-laws and other awkward social conundrums. For you, that means fewer worries about engraver's errors and buttercream frosting. 142 Berkeley St., 2nd Floor, Boston 617-357-1818, WWW.RAFANELLEVENTS.COM
